Resettlement Policy in Large Development Projects

Edited by Ryo Fujikura and Mikiyasu Nakayama, University of Tokyo, Japan

Series: Routledge Studies in Development, Displacement and Resettlement

This book uniquely explores the long-term impacts of displacement and resettlement, showing that long-term post-project evaluation is necessary to assess the rehabilitation and livelihood reconstruction of resettlers. It focuses on large dam projects in a number of Asian countries, including Indonesia, Japan, Laos, Turkey, Sri Lanka and Vietnam. Drawing on a wealth of empirical data over ten years, it presents crucial factors for successful resettlement by analysing lessons learned and draws out the common factors for successful resettlement across locations.
